Caron Announces Quinebaug Grant

HARTFORD- State Representative Michael Caron (R-Danielson) today announced that a grant to Quinebaug Valley Community College was expected to be approved by the State Bond Commission when it meets for its regular monthly meeting to be held this week. Rep. Caron sits on the State Bond Commission as an ex-officio member.

The bond authorization in the amount of $395,796 will be used for new and replacement instruction, research and laboratory equipment.

“I am very pleased to see Quinebaug on the Bond Commission agenda this week for these funds,” said Representative Caron. “Quinebaug is the fastest growing community-technical colleges in Connecticut, and these funds will be of great assistance in keeping it a great institution of learning. I thank Governor M. Jodi Rell for her consideration on these funds for Quinebaug, as well as the members of the State Bond Commission.”

The State Bond Commission will meet on Friday, May 27th, at 10:30 a.m. in Room 1E of the Legislative Office Building in Hartford. Governor M. Jodi Rell will preside over the meeting.
